

New York, NY

March 31, 2014

Talara Capital Completes Investment in Viola Oil & Gas Holdings, LLC

Talara Capital Management, LLC (“Talara”), a New York-based investment firm focused on the global resource and industrial sectors, today announced the firm has led a $60 million line of equity investment to fund Viola Oil & Gas Holdings, LLC (“Viola”), a Houston, Texas based exploration and production company focused on the identification and development of crude oil resources in the Mid-Continent.

Viola was recently formed by Sean L. Fitzgerald, President; Michael E. Rozenfeld, Vice President of Reservoir and Kristopher R. Johnson, Vice President of Operations. Viola will focus its exploration and production activities in the Mid-Continent, with a particular emphasis on the drilling and completion of modern vertical wells.

About Talara Capital Management

Talara Capital Management (“Talara”) is a real asset investment firm focused on the global resource and industrial sectors. Talara manages capital for its clients in both public and private investment vehicles.

For additional information, please contact Joseph Tremblay, Director of Marketing, at jtremblay@talaracapital.com or 646-396-6045.